	07.10.2002 Shri P. Diwakar, counsel for the petitioner. Shri Ranbir Singh, Govt. Adv. for the State/respondents. Heard. The petitioner was granted two return trip permits on the Simga-Raipur route with respect to Vehicle No.23-J-0034. However, that permit was cancelled. It is the case of the petitioner that against the order of cancellation, he sought to prefer an appeal before the State Transport Appellate Tribunal under Section 89 of Motor Vehicles Act, 1988, but he was not permitted to file the memo of appeal on the ground that that the said Authority was not functioning. It is the contention of the petitioner that as State Transport Appellate Tribunal had been constituted, the action of the authorities in not accepting the memo of appeal was not justified. Be that as it may, admittedly, the State Transport Appellate Tribunal is now functional and a Presiding Officer
